

Apprenticeship and Industry Training Act

Glazier Trade Certificate and Credits Order

Board Order 14/2014

NOTE

This is an order of the Alberta Apprenticeship and Industry Training Board made pursuant to section 3 of the Apprenticeship and Industry Training Act.

Copyright in the order belongs to the Province of Alberta.

Alberta

Apprenticeship and Industry Training

APPENDIX

Apprenticeship and Industry Training Act

GLAZIER TRADE CERTIFICATE AND CREDITS ORDER 14/2014

Table of Contents

Interpretation	1
Existing apprentices – may continue in the previous apprenticeship program	2
Existing apprentices – may enter the new apprenticeship program	3
Existing apprentices – credit and requirements for technical training	4
Existing apprentices – credit for on the job training	5
Existing apprentices – requirements to be granted a trade certificate	6
Existing trade certificates	7
Coming into force	8

Interpretation

1 In this Order,

- (a) “apprentice” means a person who is an apprentice in the trade;
- (b) “existing apprentice” means a person who immediately before January 1, 2015 was an apprentice in the previous apprenticeship program;
- (c) “new apprenticeship program” means an apprenticeship program under the Glazier Trade Regulation as it exists after January 1, 2015;
- (d) “previous apprenticeship program” means an apprenticeship program in the auto glass technician branch of the trade under the Glazier Trade Regulation (AR 280/2000) as it existed before January 1, 2015;
- (e) “technical training” means technical training as defined in the Apprenticeship Program Regulation (AR258/2000);
- (f) “trade” means the occupation of glazier that is designated as an optional certification trade pursuant to the Apprenticeship and Industry Training Act;
- (g) “trade” means the occupation of glazier that is designated as an optional certification trade pursuant to the Apprenticeship and Industry Training Act;

Existing apprentices – may continue in the previous apprenticeship program

2(1) A person who immediately before January 1, 2015 was an existing apprentice in the previous apprenticeship program may continue as an apprentice in the previous apprenticeship program until the person’s contract of apprenticeship ends under the Apprenticeship and Industry Training Administration Regulation (257/2000) or on December 31, 2016, whichever occurs first.

(2) An existing apprentice who continues as an apprentice in the previous apprenticeship program and who successfully completes all the remaining requirements of the previous apprenticeship program before December 31, 2016 may be granted a trade certificate in the auto glass technician branch of the trade.

Existing apprentices – may enter the new apprenticeship program

3(1) Where a person is an existing apprentice in the previous apprenticeship program immediately before January 1, 2015 that apprentice may, subject to this Order, enter into the new apprenticeship program.

(2) Sections 4, 5 and 6 of this Order apply to existing apprentices who enter into the new apprenticeship program.

Existing apprentices – credit and requirements for technical training

4(1) An existing apprentice who, before January 1, 2015 has successfully completed first or 2nd period technical training in the previous apprenticeship program is to be given credit for having successfully completed first or 2nd period technical training, as applicable, in the new apprenticeship program.

(2) An existing apprentice who, before January 1, 2015 has not completed first period technical training in the previous apprenticeship program must, subject to this Order, complete first period technical training in the new apprenticeship program.

(3) An existing apprentice who, before January 1, 2015 has not completed 2nd period technical training in the previous apprenticeship program must, subject to this Order, complete 2nd period technical training in the new apprenticeship program.

Existing Apprentices – credit for on the job training

5(1) An existing apprentice is to be granted credit for the hours of on the job training the apprentice had acquired in the previous apprenticeship program.

(2) In granting credit for the on the job training, for the purposes of this Order, the credit granted may be a lesser amount if the Executive Director is of the opinion that the lesser amount properly reflects the actual amount of on the job training that the existing apprentice had acquired in the previous apprenticeship program.

Existing apprentices – requirements to be granted a trade certificate

6 Subject to credit being granted under this Order, an existing apprentice must successfully complete the requirements of the new apprenticeship program in order to be granted a trade certificate in the trade.

Existing trade certificates

7 A trade certificate granted in the auto glass technician branch of the trade is equivalent to the successful completion of the first and 2nd periods of apprenticeship in the new apprenticeship program.

Coming into force

8 This Order comes into force on January 1, 2015.