

AIT Entrance Exam Support Materials were previously provided by the Alberta Education Learning Resources Centre (LRC), however the LRC is no longer supplying these materials. AB Apprenticeship is exploring the possibility of an alternate information source. New information will be provided here when it becomes available.

In the interim we encourage you to check with your local college, educational consortium or institution to inquire about alternative resources that may be available to you (e.g. an upgrading course utilizing material that achieves the same objectives as the Study Guide).
