

There may be situations where you want to permit someone else (your representative) to obtain information about your Apprenticeship and Industry Training (AIT) file. Use this Consent to Disclose Personal Information Form to give AIT your consent to share information about you and your AIT file with an authorized individual (your representative). Note: This Consent Form does not authorize your representative to take any steps, give any instructions or make any decisions on your behalf; it only permits AIT to disclose information to the representative.

How to complete the form:

1. Complete the form in ink, clearly with the following information:
  - your full legal name (last name, middle name, first name);
  - your date of birth (year, month, date);
  - your current address (if in Alberta, provide your Alberta address; if you are applying from outside Canada or Alberta, provide your current mailing address);
  - your Apprenticeship and Industry Training identification number (if available);
  - your current telephone number;
  - the name of the trade;
  - check off ☒ the type of information you authorize to be disclosed (if you check off “other”, describe the information you permit to be disclosed);
  - provide the full legal name and address of your representative (the person you are authorizing to have access to your information);
  - your relationship to the representative (for example, spouse, partner, parent, immigration lawyer, consultant, recruiter, counselor, translator etc.); and
  - indicate the amount of time your named representative will have access to the information.

NOTE: If you are applying from outside Canada, we encourage you to submit the form after you complete your online application.

2. Ensure you have provided all the information required on the form. If the form is not fully completed, Apprenticeship and Industry Training will not disclose the information requested.
3. Sign and date the form.
