

Information for Ukrainian citizens with a work permit living as a temporary resident in Canada

Alberta's Trades and Apprenticeship Education System

Alberta has more than 50 designated trades, largely in the construction, automotive, manufacturing, and industrial sectors. Most designated trades have apprenticeship programs for workers to learn the trade.

Visit tradesecrets.alberta.ca/about-trades to learn what trade designation means, and visit tradesecrets.alberta.ca/trades for a full list of trades.

Become an Apprentice in Alberta and Earn your Journeyperson Certificate!

If you are new to the trades or still learning your trade, you need to register as an apprentice to work in Alberta.

How it works:

1. Learn on-the-job.

About 80 per cent of your apprenticeship is completed on the job under the supervision of a journeyperson mentor. You will 'earn while you learn', supported by a sponsor who helps you get employment.

2. Learn in the classroom.

About 20 per cent of your apprenticeship is completed at a post-secondary institution in classrooms and labs. Most apprentices attend classroom instruction once a year for a period of 6-10 weeks.

3. Receive your Journeyperson Certificate and education credential.

When you have completed your apprenticeship (programs range from 1 to 4 years), you will receive

- a journeyperson certificate recognizing your skill in your trade, and
- an education credential, acknowledging that you have completed a post-secondary program of study.
